

FOR CONSERVATION

MISS MILDRED LANTZ OF HIGH SCHOOL GIVES RELIABLE DIRECTIONS FOR CANNING

The following valuable instruction for the canning of summer vegetables has been furnished by Miss Mildred F. Lantz, who is at the head of the Department of Domestic Science in Glendale Union High School and who has personally tested the methods she recommends, which were originally put out by the University of California. It will be observed that she uses lemon juice to supply the acid which vegetables ordinarily lack and which is needed to destroy dangerous bacteria.

The demonstration which Miss Lantz is giving Wednesday afternoon will be of interest to every housewife in the city and should take a great many visitors to the Domestic Science Department. She has promised at a later date to give some demonstrations of cheap substitutes for wheat flour.

A HOME PRODUCT

QUAINT MUSICAL DRAMA ARRANGED BY GLENDALE WOMAN

"Old Cranford," given by the music section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club May 9th, and which met with such artistic and financial success on that occasion, was adapted from the popular novel of that name by clever little Mrs. Freeman Kelley. The cast was also made up from Glendale ladies and gentlemen and the old-fashioned costumes and appropriate stage settings were all prized relics of a former generation loaned for the occasion by local residents, so that the production might be labeled in all truth "Glendale Made."

Arrangements have been made to repeat the "Musical" next Saturday evening, June 1st, in the High School auditorium. One hundred and thirty dollars were turned over to the local chapter of the Red Cross from the first performance, and judging from the advance sale of seats fully as much will be realized from the second showing.

MOTHER'S CONGRESS

LARGE AND SUCCESSFUL CONVENTION CONDUCTED BY DR. JESSIE A. RUSSELL

The annual convention held at Bakersfield, May 22nd, 23rd, and 24th, of the California Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Associations marked an epoch in convention history in this state. The keynote throughout was Patriotism and Service.

The state president, Dr. Jessie A. Russell of this city, presided during all sessions and was ably supported by a large group of state officers and state chairmen. There were 162 delegates in attendance, together with many alternates. The large convention hall was crowded with delegates, visitors, and local citizens at all sessions.

The business men of the city raised the fund for the rental of and donated the use of the Opera House, seating 1500 persons, for the evening of Thursday, when Gov. W. D. Stephens was the speaker.

Dr. Russell had planned a pleasant little surprise for the Governor when she arranged with Charles Curran, a prominent musician at Bakersfield, to sing for the first time in the United States an original song, "Boy O Mine, Good Night." The words and music are by Wesley Stephens Wilson, a nephew of the Governor. This song was composed prior to Mr. Wilson's leaving for the front in France and came off the press just four days before the convention. Mr. Wilson is prominent among eastern university men.

Beautiful baskets of flowers and luscious boxes of fruit were presented to the state president during the different sessions of the convention by local fraternal orders and civic organizations, with best wishes and congratulations from the donors upon the very successful convention.

Reports showed the great interest in state work and a wonderful spirit of harmony, co-operation and enthusiasm was evident throughout.

In making her annual report as state president, Dr. Russell, said that when she accepted the office she determined that as the members of the California Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Associations were giving to the child welfare work of the state generously of their time and ability wholly without compensation, the state officials and civic organizations should be brought to a realization of the part they should take in this great welfare work. The result of her efforts has been very gratifying, as among the many instances of such recognition are the following: (1) the donation of beautiful headquarters by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce; (2) the donation of the handsome directors' rooms of the Security Bank, Los Angeles, by the directors for the state executive board meetings; (3) the hearty co-

DEATH OF CHAS. STURGESS

After a long illness, Chas. Sturgess, a resident of Glendale for five years, passed away at his home, 1425 West Broadway, May 26, 1918.

The deceased was in his 85th year and had been blind for many years, but was always a cheerful, patient sufferer, a consistent Christian and loving parent. He leaves to mourn his loss one son, George Meynell Sturgess, of Gary, Ind., and three daughters, Miss Emma E. Sturgess (with whom he made his home), Mrs. R. L. Dozier of Los Angeles and Mrs. J. J. Hough of Banning, also thirteen grandchildren and six great grandchildren. Funeral services will be conducted in the "Little Church of the Flowers" by Rev. Geo. W. Davis, Pastor of the Gospel Tabernacle Church, of which deceased was a member, and Rev. Vernon Cowser, Pastor of the Baptist Church, Glendale, Tuesday, May 28, at 2 p. m.

Interment in Forest Lawn Memorial Park, Jewel City Undertaking Co. in charge.

PROPER CREDIT TO BE GIVEN

Many people living in Glendale and working in Los Angeles have been subscribing to the Red Cross through the firms by whom they are employed. On these cases very often no credit has been given the individual or the local chapter in the town where they reside. This has been the cause of trouble, as it was impossible to keep these records correct without this information.

Largely through the activity of Mr. Lawshe of the local chapter this condition is being rapidly straightened out. Such firms as the railroads are sending in reports of the subscriptions received from their employees living in our town. In this way proper credit will be given the individual as well as the local chapter.

ENEMY ATTACKS ON NEW FRONT

STRIKES AT ALLIED LINES SOUTH OF PICARDY AND ATTACKS POSITIONS BETWEEN LOCRE AND VORMEEZEELE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, May 27.—The Germans suddenly attacked this morning on a new front south of Picardy, at the same time thrusting northward toward Ypres. After an intense bombardment the enemy struck on a wide front between Rheims and Soisson and extending eastward and southward from the Picardy front. Simultaneously French positions between Locre and Vormezele were attacked. The attack is reported as progressing in spots. Allied troops are fighting brilliantly. The major attack is a powerful blow against Scherpenberg, a mile west of Locre, where the French won considerable ground a week ago.

TWO THIRDS WAR REVENUE FROM TAXES

NEW WAR FINANCE BILL WILL LEVY $4,000,000 MORE THAN PRESENT MEASURE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, May 27.—President Wilson's war finance policy contemplates raising forty per cent of new revenue by taxes and 60 per cent by bonds, it was learned today. The new tax bill is expected to raise four billions more than the present bill which augurs a $20,000,000,000 bond issue in the fall. House democratic leader Kitchin and others who previously opposed tax legislation today announced their intention to formulate a bill in accordance with the president's message. Republican leader Gillette stated he is in accord with the president on this measure.

WILSON APPEALS FOR PASSAGE OF TAX BILL

PRESIDENT TELLS JOINT SESSION OF CONGRESS PEOPLE SHOULD KNOW WHAT BURDENS THEY MUST BEAR

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Linking his appeal with the resumption of the German drive on the West Front, President Wilson addressed a joint session of Congress today, demanding that the members forget the coming election and enact a tax measure this session. "At the very peak and crisis of the war," he said, "the American people are not to be left in doubt as to the money burdens they must bear to meet the enemy and bring him to a reckoning." War profits, incomes and luxuries will have to bear the greatest burden, he suggested. "Bonds can not be floated and the money market stabilized if no one knows where the money is to come from to back the nation's certificates of indebtedness." He also struck at the lobbyists and profiteers whom taxes, if not their consciences, can reach.

ELKS ARE HOSTS

JUDGE McCORMICK GIVES ADDRESS WHEN RED CROSS WORKERS MEET

The Red Cross meeting and reception at the Elks' Club House Saturday evening, when reports of the drive were presented, was a success from every standpoint. Enthusiasm for the cause ran high, it was delightful as a social affair, and the program was very much worth while. It was given in the banquet room of the club house and every seat was filled. It began with a fine musical program furnished by the twenty-piece orchestra of the High School led by Mrs. Dora Gibson.

Bert P. Woodard, Exalted Ruler of the Lodge, presided and in his speech of welcome to Red Cross workers dwelt on how fitting it was for his organization to act as host on such an occasion because the first and fundamental requirement of the Elk is respect for the flag of his country and obedience to its laws. Said he: "There are patriots who are not Elks, but there are no Elks who are not patriots." Mr. Woodard then introduced Vice-Chairman A. L. Lawshe, manager of the Red Cross drive, who gave interesting facts and statistics relative to the campaign. Glendale's quota, he said, was $6000, but up to Saturday evening $12,000 had been subscribed, of which over $7000 was cash. This statement was greeted with tremendous applause.

The chairmen of the various committees were then called upon and responded briefly, thanking committee members for their splendid team work and the people in general for their liberal response to the Red Cross appeal. The workers testified that in most instances checks were awaiting them when they made their calls.

Paul J. McCormick, Judge of the Superior Court of Los Angeles County, made the leading address of the evening and in his introduction referred to having served as judge at the oratorical contest in which Glendale's representative (Clarence Ralston) won the championship for Southern California and said he felt as though the people would really be better entertained by that young man's fine and very patriotic address than by any speech he could make.

The judge dwelt upon the greatness of this hour in the destiny of nations. "There have been other days when Liberty hung in the balance," said he. "It was a great day when the American Colonies gained freedom, a great day when freedom was given to the slaves, a great day when the people of Cuba won freedom, but this is the great and crucial day not only for America but for all the world."

"We must not minimize the power of the enemy, which," he pointed out, "has 185 millions of people at her command arrayed against us with all forms of activity. This means that there is work for all in the Red Cross and co-operation is needed as well as money. The poet Lowell has said:

"It is not what we give but what we share.
For the gift without the giver is bare."

"If the subscriber contributes because the gift is wrung from him, it is a barren return. We want his co-operation and enthusiasm for the cause. This is a work for every man, woman and child in America. One year ago there were 500 Red Cross chapters in this country with a mem-

CAN'T KEEP THEM AWAY

"Three years ago we exchanged property on Dryden street, Casa Verdugo, belonging to J. T. Asbury for a nice home in Hollywood, and they have had the come-back fever ever since," says H. L. Miller of the real estate firm of that name. "A week ago we placed an ad in the Glendale Evening News to exchange their Hollywood home for Glendale. We closed a deal Saturday giving him the property at the northwest corner of Cedar and Fifth street belonging to Mr. Stuart for his Hollywood home. Mr. Asbury is now here to stay, another first-class citizen. Mr. Stuart already lived in Hollywood."

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

The hearing of reports of various officers of the club and the election of officers for the ensuing year will occupy the attention of members at the regular session of the Tuesday Afternoon Club tomorrow at 2:30 p. m. at the Masonic Temple. Entertainment features will be two delightful vocal numbers by Mrs. Roach and a reading by Miss Doris Packer, one of Glendale's talented and pleasing young artists.

MUSIC SECTION

WOMAN'S WORK IN MUSIC IS THEME AT FRIDAY'S MEETING

The Music Section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club met Friday afternoon with Mrs. F. S. Balthis, 519 North Brand boulevard. Mrs. Opal Greenwalt had charge of the program, the topic being "Woman's Work in Music" and "Great Singers." Excellent papers were read by Mrs. Crampton on Jennie Lind and Mrs. Salter on Caruso. Mrs. Ferguson gave a short talk on Galli Curiel.

Mrs. L. N. Hagood played "The Flatterer" by Chaminade and "Waltzes" by Carrie Jacobs-Bond. Little Miss Bettie Hagood, aged four, showed remarkable musical talent when she sang a little song composed for her by her mother, Mrs. Crampton having written the words. Miss Marie Hearnshaw sang "A Baby's Prayer at Twilight" and responded to an encore. Mrs. T. D. Ogg gave two numbers by Guy de Harelot.

There was a short business session and plans were made for a luncheon the closing day. Mrs. A. A. Barton is to be chairman, which means the luncheon will be strictly in accordance with the food administration policy, as Mrs. Barton is chairman of the local committee of the County Council of Defense.

An announcement was made by Mrs. Barton concerning the formation of a federation of musical clubs of the State of California. Mrs. Calvin Whiting of the local club has been made corresponding secretary of this federation, an honor which the section appreciates keenly.

Arrangements were made for the meeting to be held June 14 at the home of Mrs. Hagood. Mrs. A. R. Gates will speak on her altruistic work in the district federation. She will also sing a group of arias from the Cadman opera recently produced in New York. Beethoven is the composer to be studied.

HONORS FOR GLENDALE HIGH

Professor Root reports that Glendale Union High has received honorable recognition from the Southwestern Debating League. At the final meeting of the organization for the season, which was held in the Law Building of U. S. C. in Los Angeles, last Saturday morning at ten o'clock, when officers for the coming year were elected, Glendale was made president, Pasadena, vice-president, Santa Monica, secretary, and Pomona, treasurer.

This means that Frank Balthis, who has been elected secretary of the debating section of the student body of Glendale High, will be expected to fill this office and be responsible for all the duties it imposes. Several years ago a Glendale representative filled the presidency of the Southwestern League, but the school has not been represented officially since.

FLAGS AND PINS

Vice-Chairman Lawshe announces that the Glendale Chapter has just received an ample supply of Red Cross pins and window flags which will be given to all who subscribed to the fund if they will come to headquarters with their receipts any time after Wednesday morning.

POST AND CORPS

MEET FOR ALL DAY BUSINESS AND SOCIAL MEETING ON FRIDAY

A very successful all-day meeting of the N. P. Banks Post and Corps was held Friday at G. A. R. hall, the Post assembling in the forenoon.

Ladies constituting the committee which had charge of preparing and serving the dinner, at which covers for 100 were laid, were Mesdames Lena Robert, Mary Milligan, Priscilla Houdyshel, Adelaide Imler and Margaret Hibbert.

Following the dinner the W. R. C. had a brief session at which an interesting miscellaneous program was given which included talks by Commander Clark and by Will Richardson, now on a furlough and the guest of his mother, Mrs. Ella Richardson, and readings by Mrs. Eustace B. Moore.

Later a business meeting was held at which Mrs. Richards, who attended the convention at Oakland as the delegate of the Corps, made her report. Several items of business were transacted and the organization voted to devote two days a month to Red Cross work, one to the Glendale Red Cross Chapter and one to the Tropic Branch, as part of the corps belongs to one and part to the other organization.

MOTHERS OF MEN!

The months are tedious, the burden great,
The months are long that she has to wait.
But her dreams continue, mounting high,
And she still endures, and the days glide by;
Till at last she comes, all bruised and torn,
Through the shadowy valley, creeping, worn,
That someone may say on a dreary morn:
"Lo, into the world a son is born
To weary mothers of men!"

Her baby son—he has soft, bright hair,
And day by day he grows more fair.
The pain was nothing and all forgot;
The weary waiting—why, it was naught.
But the dreams are true; here is only joy.
And the hours are golden without alloy.
Here is perfect love, no fears to annoy,
And glad is she that she has her boy.
Oh, happy mothers of men!

With her love by day and her prayers by night,
She taught the child heart to know the right.
To work for it, live it, and if need be,
To give his life for it, willingly.
And now he is gone, her son or mine;
He is facing death on the firing line.
He was glad and gay and eager and fine.
But Oh! the guns roar all the time!
To sorrowing mothers of men.

Could we just be near those lads of ours,
When their poor, tired forms crush the meadow flowers!
We would give all life, it seems to me,
If that which is not could only be!
But the Greatest Mother of Earth is there,
She soothes their pain with a knowledge rare.
And we'll lighten the load she has to bear,
By our love and our gold and our tender care
For the Red Cross Mother of Men!

bership of 500,000. Today there are 15,000 chapters with a membership of twenty-two millions. These workers have prepared twenty-seven million bandages during the past twelve months.

He then spoke of other departments of service besides ministering to the wounded which the Red Cross is carrying on, of the 60,000 children in Poland who have been saved, of the fifty thousand French babies and elderly men and women of France who have been fed and cared for in the work of immediate relief and repatriation, of the relief of suffering that has been given to Rumania and Abyssinia. He spoke of what Red Cross aid had meant to Italy, how its succor, its food and clothing and above all its encouragement had saved Italy to herself and the allies and had enabled her to "come back."

He emphasized the continued need of surgical supplies because even now in some of the remote districts sawdust is being used in the first aid given the wounded because nothing else is available.

"There are now," he said, "7000 Red Cross nurses in France and by June first 10,000 more will be ready to go. With all this work to be done the need for the money which Red Cross officials are calling for is at once apparent and it is not an unreasonable demand since it amounts to but $1 per capita." He then called attention to the money spent in the United States for things which are not necessities. "The past year," said he, "There has been $200,000,000 spent for candy alone, and this Red Cross call was for only one-half that amount. For gum $50,000,000 were spent during the year 1916. We should not be astonished for such a call from the Red Cross when our people are able to spend such sums as these for non-essentials."

Referring to America's contribution to the war in man power he stated that last month 120,000 American boys went over seas, and during the present month 90,000 had gone.

He dwelt upon the fact that racial lines are obliterated in the Red Cross, and creeds and sectarianism eliminated. Catholic and Protestant, Christian and Jew work side by side, and wherever misery exists, there the Red Cross goes with its ministry of comfort and hope.

The judge paid a high tribute to the Elks' organization, of which he is a member, and to the thousands of Elks who have left their places in the business and professional world to serve at the front because they were inspired by the truest patriotism and were ready to give their life to save the democracy of the world.

Mattison B. Jones

Mattison B. Jones, of this city, the next speaker, supported his plea for the Red Cross by an array of facts and figures that could not fail to arrest attention. He said:

"When America declared war on the Imperial German government on April 6th, 1917, the army of the United States consisted of 9200 officers and 202,000 enlisted men, and the navy of the United States consisted of 4800 officers and 78,000 enlisted men. One year from that date the army consisted of 123,800 officers and 1,509,000 enlisted men, and the navy consisted of 21,000 officers and 330,000 enlisted men, and since April 6th that million and a half in our army has been increased to two million men.

"The President, as the Commander in Chief, has asked Congress not to limit him in his call for men to serve in both the army and the navy. In his New York speech he asked the question: 'Why limit our forces to 5,000,000 or any other number?' I believe Congress will grant his request and place unlimited power in him to call such numbers as the exigencies demand, whether it be 5,000,000 or 8,000,000.

"Within eighty days after war was declared by our government the first American expeditionary forces safely landed on the soil of France and soon thereafter, General Pershing, surrounded by Frenchmen of nobility and high command in the army, stood at the grave of Lafayette and saluted and said: 'Lafayette, we are here.' It was a great day in the history of America and the world when, on March 23d last, two days after the beginning of the world's greatest battle, that of Picardy, General Pershing, voicing the sentiments of the American nation, said: 'Tell us what to do and we will do it.' It will be a greater day in the history of America and the history of the world when the millions of brave American soldiers and sailors under the inspiration of the Stars and Stripes in conjunction with their gallant allies across the sea, will force the black flag of Germany to be lowered in unconditional surrender."

In closing he said: "You have heard remarkable figures and facts from our distinguished guest, Judge McCormick, concerning the work of the Red Cross, and with these facts and these sentiments in our hearts and knowing our duty for the support of our men at the front, is there anything that the Red Cross can ask of us that is too great for us to do?"

Following the speeches, Roy Kent auctioned off a collection of squabs which had been donated to the Red Cross and realized therefrom $18 for the cause. A stretcher had been placed at the entrance to the Club House to receive Red Cross contributions and announcement was made that $22.00 had been gathered up from that receptacle. Before the evening closed the offering was considerably increased. A brief intermission gave guests a chance to move around and greet each other and to sample the excellent punch served by pretty girls in Red Cross nurse costume, and then the closing number of the program was given, a Red Cross picture play in five reels entitled "Dolly Does Her Bit," which featured little Marie Osborne, the child film favorite, which was produced by the Diando Company of Glendale. It was greatly enjoyed and gave a pleasing variety to the evening's entertainment.

CHAPLAIN NORTON'S REPORT

The reports of officers submitted at the Fifty-first Annual Encampment of the Department of California and Nevada, Grand Army of the Republic, May 7th to 11th, has just been published and it contains the report of the Department Chaplain, C. R. Norton, of Glendale, which reads as follows:

Glendale, April 10, 1918.
To A. C. Shafer,
Assistant Adjutant General.

Dear Comrade: I have the honor to submit my report for the year now ending.

Permit me to indicate my high appreciation for the honor conferred upon me in the office held by me during the past year, in one of the greatest organizations in all the land, the G. A. R. A few facts are brought out by the reports of the Post Chaplains of the Department.

That the spirit of patriotism was never more alive than now, as shown by the enthusiasm of the members of the Grand Army of the Republic and the noble sentiments expressed by them everywhere, and backed by deeds performed by them in support of "Old Glory." Something more than fifty per cent of the Posts of the Department have reported. All of them reported Memorial and Decoration Day services well attended by members of the Posts and kindred associations and civilians. The W. R. C. and all kindred societies have done splendidly in supporting the cause for which the Grand Army stands; in their presence and hearty support at all the public meetings, besides holding many of their own, in behalf of the cause so dear to every Comrade's heart. Many Posts of the Department owe their life and healthy condition to what is being done in the way of providing entertainments.

The Schools

The Schools of the Department have shown an unusual interest in the cause of the old Soldier of '61 to '65 by attending the services of Memorial Day, and in assisting in the program on this eventful occasion. We do wisely to encourage patriotism in the schools. With such a host as are in the schools being taught honor to our flag, the interests of our land are safe, and Liberty, righteousness and justice will be maintained.

A Change

A change that should be effected in nearly all our communities is, that the ex-soldiers who have not affiliated with the G. A. R. should be brought in. We, as Comrades, will not have done our full duty until every one of these has been invited and urged to be identified with our Posts. Nearly all the advantages that have come to old soldiers have come through the Grand Army. Gratitude and self protection demand that he should show his appreciation by coming into this relation.

Farther

We should use our best endeavors to discourage all use of Memorial Day, sacred to the memory of our noble dead, in games and those uses not in harmony with honoring the memory of our departed Comrades, and that for which they gave their lives in great sacrifice.

Comrades

The fast increasing list of our departed should call our special attention to the fact that what we do in behalf of the Grand Army and the cause of humanity must be done very soon. It should be our purpose to strengthen the cause of civil and religious liberty, to help to the limit of our ability to make the world safe for Democracy. To a man we would be in the trenches of the Allies offering our lives to save the world from the rule of destruction and death. This we can not do, but we can do our "bit" to help the cause of our boys that we send over sea, by hand, by voice, by vote, by standing four square always against all disloyalty in men and women who are receiving the benefits of our land and who are not true to the cause of America today. We should aid in sending afar those who are not with us heart and soul, life and all in our great struggle. In the thought of one of the great ones of our early history—"We must hang together or hang separately." Germany can and will be beaten. Peace by victory is our only hope. It must and will come thus. A brighter day is coming, Comrades. It is coming. "Say your prayers and keep your powder dry."

A glorious immortality awaits us; it is light beyond. Hitch your wagon to a star, and move in the full line of all duty.

Respectfully submitted in F. C. and L.,

C. R. NORTON,
Chaplain.

LUTHERAN WAR FUNDS

It will be noted by the report of Red Cross luncheons published in Saturday's paper that ladies of the Lutheran Church under the chairmanship of Mrs. Mottern realized $20 from their dinner, one-half of which was donated to the Glendale Red Cross Chapter. Music was furnished on that occasion by Emma Esterly and Elizabeth Mottern, who sang "Keep the Home Fires Burning." The other fifty per cent of the proceeds of the luncheon the ladies donated to the War Fund for Lutheran Soldiers and Sailors. This fund, Mrs. Mottern states, now amounts to $1,250,000. She says the Lutheran are a much stronger organization in the east and middle west than on this coast and have many pastors engaged in Y. M. C. A. work or as camp pastors, a good many camps having been provided with Lutheran chapels. She also says the denomination has 160,000 men in the army.

RED CROSS NOTES

The product of ladies who worked in the surgical dressings department of the Glendale Red Cross Chapter May 23d under the instruction of Mrs. Edgar W. Pack, was 48 five-yard rolls. BOOKS SENT TO SOLDIERS

Many inquiries have been made as to whether the books collected in the book drive for the soldiers in the camps have been delivered to the boys. Mrs. Danford, librarian, says most of the books collected at the library have gone to the camps, but more are being received and will be sent as soon as the regulations required by the American Library association can be complied with. Your contributions of volumes that you think will be of interest to the soldiers will be gladly received at the library.

LIBERTY BANANAS WIN ONE RECRUIT

Credit bananas with one good fighter for Uncle Sam. Walter Sheppard, 15, has succeeded in passing the physical examination for enlistment in the marine corps, although a few days ago he couldn't pass it.

After Walter had obtained the consent of his parents, he still had a hard fight ahead. He was several pounds too light to be admitted to the marines.

"Bananas will increase your weight," he was told, and he went in for bananas.

The first day he ate two dozen, the next day a dozen and a half, and the next day one dozen. Four pounds were gained. The patriotic grocer

Now he has passed, and he's through with bananas forever!

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Masters of 342 North Maryland avenue left Saturday for Long Beach, where they expect to spend the summer in the Neet Apartments on Magnolia avenue.

Mrs. Mae V. Grumbling of Portland, Oregon, formerly of this city, is the house guest of Mrs. O. L. Kilborn and family. She will be here for some time taking a much needed rest from her strenuous musical work.

Billy Snell, who was injured while shooting birds by the rebound from a telephone wire of a bullet which entered his shoulder and penetrated to the lung, is very much better and will soon be able to resume his school work.

Mrs. W. B. Kirk had as guests on Sunday two of her brothers, C. Edgar Ragland of San Diego and Oscar Ragland of Atlanta, Ga., with their wives. These men were formerly well known to Angelenos of 30 years ago, Oscar Ragland having been Captain of Co. F, Seventh Regt. C. N. G., and Edgar Ragland a sergeant in the same company and afterward lieutenant in the Spanish-American War in a Texas regiment.

Miss Nanon Herren, who will be remembered by many people in Glendale, having spent the summer here in 1915, is again a visitor, being a guest of the Nicoles home on Seventh street. Miss Herren is a very interesting and artistic reader and was asked to go to Camp Kearny and, although due in Boston May 15, where she is connected with the "Curry" School of Expression, she stayed to do her part in the war work and gave one week to the camp, giving an hour's entertainment each night. Miss Herren left for the east Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hillman of this city, accompanied by Dr. A. M. Duncan, have just returned from a week's outing on Mr. Hillman's ranch near Tulare, where they went back to the simple life and practically camped. The doctor reports that a great deal of improvement is going forward in that region. Dry farming is giving place to irrigated crops of alfalfa, corn, grain, etc., for which the farmers are receiving excellent prices. The big ranches are being cut up and many small farms are being developed. They were away a week and returned Sunday.

Mrs. Calvin Whiting, Curator of the Music Section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club of this city, has been made corresponding secretary of a State Musical Association formally organized Friday afternoon at Blanchard hall in Los Angeles. Mrs. Bessie Bartlett Frankel, Chairman of Music in the District Federation of Clubs, was made president, and Mrs. Behymer, who assisted in the organization, is one of the three directors. It will be affiliated with the National Federation of Musical Clubs and will have an annual meeting at which a big, fine program will be presented.

DEATH OF LELIA DEVINE

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Devine of 3464 North San Fernando road learned with sorrow of the death Sunday morning at the Methodist hospital in Los Angeles of their daughter, Lelia Devine, at the age of 35 years. The Devine family have been many years in this district and are widely known. Two daughters, Mabel and Florence Devine, and a son in Bisbee are left to these bereaved parents. Services over the body of their daughter will be postponed until the arrival of the son from Bisbee. Lelia Devine has been a very successful business woman and entered the employ of the well-known Los Angeles firm, Parmalee & Dohrmann soon after graduating from business college. She has remained with them ever since and was quite a large stockholder in the business. Her services were highly valued and she will be much missed there as well as in the community in which she has been beloved and respected.

GLENDALE MEN ASSOCIATED

Glendale people will be interested in the announcement of the partnership recently formed, Lindley, Pierce and Leeds, with offices in the Hollingsworth building, Los Angeles. The firm comprises Arthur G. Lindley, architectural engineer, who resides at 104 South Kenwood street, Glendale, H. L. Pierce, architect, of Los Angeles, and L. C. Leeds, advertising manager, 1650 West Broadway, Glendale. Those who know say this is a particularly strong combination for business.

ALL-CAPITAL HUP

CAR THAT HAS BEEN DRIVEN THROUGH EVERY STATE IN THE UNION IS HERE

For the second time—and this time for good—the All-Capital Hupmobile which in a little more than four months was driven 18,430 miles over all kinds of roads, and which visited every capital and every state in the United States, is in California. And its stay in this part of the country will be prolonged, for the Hup Motor Car Corporation has harkened to insistent requests of the Greer-Robbins Company of Los Angeles, the largest distributors of Hupmobiles in the world, and all title to the famous car has been transferred to this well-known automobile concern. The Greer-Robbins Company wants the public to see the All-Capital Hupmobile, and as many as can to ride in it; and toward this end it has arranged that the car may be turned over for a short period to each Hupmobile dealer in this territory. The car that conquered the worst of roads and which made an unparalleled record in the motor world will arrive in Glendale today and will remain here for two days, according to an announcement made by George E. Clayton, agent for the Hupmobile.

"We want everyone in Glendale to see this car, and we want to take people for a ride in it. We want you to see at first hand that although it set a sky-high mark in performance, it is a stock 1917 model, and that what it did any 1918 Hupmobile will do—and even more. And we want the kiddies to ride. The car is not here for show purposes on our sales-room floor. Far from it. We want it on the go all the time," said Mr. Clayton.

The idea of the Hupmobile United America tour originated in the mind of J. Walter Drake, president of the Hup Motor Corporation. Drake is a good roads enthusiast of the first water and he had long been impressed by the fact that there was no definite route connecting the various capitals of the Union; and he decided to pioneer such route at his own expense. It was but natural that he chose the Hupmobile to make the gruelling trip and so by such a marvelous demonstration show the power and endurance of the car under all road conditions. A crew of four men was picked to accompany it, and these with baggage and a complete motion picture outfit brought the tour car's weight up to 4,350 pounds. It was felt that this weight was far above that usually carried by the average Hupmobile in ordinary service and, successfully carried, would provide abundant proof of Hup staunchness.

"In the presence of many prominent people and carrying on its radiator cap the spread-eagle of the National Highway's Association, the Hupmobile left Washington August 28, 1916, on its long journey. The nationwide run was made under the auspices of the American Automobile Association and seals placed upon the car testified it was stock in every particular.

"The route followed was northward through New England and then westward south of the Great Lakes and through the tier of states along the Canadian boundary. Sacramento was visited October 24, and Los Angeles October 28. In Los Angeles the crew was the guests of the Greer-Robbins Company, and at Universal City where numerous actors and actresses own Hupmobiles, there was a day of celebration and movie stunts. Turning its radiator again northward the All-Capital car traversed Nevada, Utah, Wyoming, Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona, Texas and the States of the South, returning to Washington, January 7, 1917.

"Roads were covered that were nothing more than trails. According to the accurate log of the wonderful journey, the Hupmobile forded streams, bucked snowdrifts in Wyoming and in the mountains of Colorado and New Mexico. Desert sands were also overcome as well as the swamps of the South. It goes almost without saying that when the road-worn crew rolled over the paved highways of Southern California, every member of it thought he had reached the motorist's paradise.

"What the Hupmobile did on that nationwide run made all factory tests appear as child's play. The car that withstood all that hammering and which averaged on official test a shade better than eighteen miles to the gallon of gas, demonstrated beyond all doubt that factory claims for Hup staunchness, power and economy were mild indeed.

"We want you all to pile into this Hup and take a ride. We want to load it to the limit and keep it on the go all the time. Come one, come all; it's at your service."

APPRECIATION

The committee in charge of the big Red Cross Rally held in the Elks' club rooms Saturday evening wish to take this means to express our grateful appreciation for the excellent co-operation and assistance rendered by Mrs. Dora Gibson and the High School Orchestra, and Leon T. Osborne, vice-president of the Diando Film Co., who furnished for our use the five-reel picture by Baby Marie. This picture, "Dolly Does Her Bit," is a big success but has never appeared as yet in Glendale.

ENTERTAINMENT COMMITTEE,
Glendale Lodge B. P. O. E. Elks.

operation and assistance of the county and city libraries throughout the state; (4) the generous distribution, upon request, of large numbers of copies of "Laws of Interest to Women and Children" by the state librarian, M. J. Ferguson; (5) the splendid support of different state departments, especially that of the State Board of Control and the State Board of Agriculture, who are co-operating with the Congress in promoting the child welfare work at the state fair, and will place all exhibits of the Congress and attend to all incidental details, wholly without expense to the Congress; (6) the appreciation of the state work as shown by the various educational authorities, especially by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, Edward Hyatt, who is collaborating with the state president in issuing a booklet under the auspices of his department, giving reasons why all schools should organize a Parent-Teacher Association, why it should be supported by the parents and teachers and what it means to a community, and instructions as to how to organize. Also by the Glendale Union High School, where the work of issuing the minutes of the state executive board meetings has been done so efficiently.

As well as the recognition of the value of the work to the teaching forces when the state president was invited to address the various normal schools throughout the state upon the work of the Congress, thereby impressing upon the teachers the importance of the organization.

The president has also been invited to address numerous teachers' clubs and associations.

The report also showed that the president had officially visited eight of the nine districts of the state, had attended several annual district conventions and numerous federation conventions. The only reason for failing to accept all invitations being the duplication of dates and lack of time.

The report showed 1282 letters were written on organization work, etc., since entering upon official duties July 1st, 1917.

The Congress has taken its place in the foremost ranks of women's organizations in all matters pertaining to legislation. All of its measures were adopted by the Women's Legislative Council of California.

The reports of the 27 Federation presidents were of unusual interest, and that of Mrs. A. C. Brown, President of the Glendale Federation, received many complimentary commendations.

Among the various localities represented by delegations were Sacramento, Berkeley, Oakland, San Jose, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Santa Barbara, San Diego, Santa Cruz, San Bernardino, Pasadena, Pomona, South Pasadena, Santa Ana, Orange, Redlands, Riverside, Fresno, Chico, Folsom, Fair Oaks, Lindsay, Taft, Bakersfield, Long Beach, Escondido, Glendale, Redondo Beach, Manteca, and many others.

The Bakersfield ladies entertained with a luncheon on Wednesday to the state executive board, where greetings were extended to the board by all the local educators. The county superintendent of schools, L. E. Chenoweth, acted as toastmaster. Dr. Russell responded on behalf of the state.

While the atmosphere throughout was weighted with serious consideration of present and future problems, many delightfully relaxing incidents occurred. One was an original bit of song, written by Mrs. S. E. Mack of Sacramento and sung by the entire delegation (numbering 25) from the Third District, wherein they eulogized the state president, the work and the importance of the California Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Associations. Another was the presentation by the visiting delegates of a beautiful hammered sterling silver set to Master Osborn, six weeks old son of Mrs. Walter Osborn, President of the Bakersfield District and hostess-in-chief to the convention. The father, a prominent Bakersfield attorney, arrived just in time to accept the gift on behalf of the small son.

Mrs. J. A. Osgood, of Sierra Madre and Los Angeles, known as one of the few parliamentarians with a national reputation, was acting parliamentarian for the convention. Mrs. Osgood received an ovation at the close of her address on "The Unparliamentary woman" and won the warm affection of the whole convention by her charming personality.

Much informal entertaining was done in honor of the state president by the local ladies as well as by the different delegations. Among such entertainments, Mrs. Osborn entertained at a dinner on Tuesday evening, the Oakland delegation at a dinner on Friday evening.

Probably no state convention was ever held where so great and so sympathetic an understanding of worldwide conditions was evidenced throughout. The delegates showed a loving appreciation of the state officers and when the president announced that the state recording secretary, Mrs. Wm. Eckhart, had received a telegram on Friday morning notifying her that her only son was leaving for the front and that she had left at once for New York to bid him good-bye, there was a moment of tense silence during which many a mother thought of her son already at the front.

Among the delegates leaving Los Angeles on the official train were Dr.

LA CANADA

"One of the deepest stains that rests upon the German army is that it has not respected the Red Cross."

The first official American communique given out since the American troops became a permanent part of the fighting line was issued May 15. Needless to state that they upheld the flag under which they fought.

Red Cross drive in La Canada netted the first day $1500.

Junior Red Cross vaudeville gathered in at least $60 net. One number of the program was filled by Mr. Sloane of Pasadena, who made an appealing and forceful speech in behalf of the Red Cross drive which began Monday morning. Mr. Sloane said: "Not knowing whether La Canada's quota of $2000 might be thought excessive, it is an honor to feel that you can be relied on to rise up and meet what is expected of you." Mr. Henry of Glendale, because of his imitations of Harry Lauder, was enthusiastically received. All numbers of the program were very good and enjoyable. You had the program last week. The black-faces had everyone mystified. "Oh, yes! the short one is Lawrence Lester and the tall one is Joe Leoni. Sure!" And 'twas the other way about. Lawrence was the tall gentleman of color, so Joe had to be the short one. The Girls' Club wish to extend hearty thanks to all those friends of the Community Players of Pasadena who so generously helped, for the pleasure they gave, and to Glendale for its help extended in the name of the Red Cross, and last to the faithful workers at home. What work was done was done for the Red Cross and that is all the recognition asked. Girls, do it again.

There is to be a great fun feature at the June Improvement meeting, the last Saturday in June.

Mr. Huntington is given the contract for the ornamental iron work to be used in the fine house being erected by L. C. Riggs on Flintridge.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Friday is at home again. She has been in a hospital in Los Angeles, where she underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Manton White is in Camp Lewis, a member of the depot brigade. Three times they were about to be released after the usual inoculations, when measles broke out. They look forward now to a speedy release unless the disease becomes again unruly and makes another eruption. Sydney Ellis is up at Camp Lewis also.

Burr avenue is posted for paving.

Miss Barbara Green has proved just lately to be persistently interested in gardening. Her father does not seem to appreciate her endeavors, it must be said.

The Glendale Intermediate School Glee Club sang at the Palace Grand an afternoon and evening one day recently for the benefit of the Junior Red Cross which received 80 per cent of the proceeds. Florence Pate was one of the singers.

Out of the many pupils attending Glendale High, only eleven of them are studying harmony, nine girls and two boys. Of these eleven scholars, two are from La Canada and possess musical talents of a high order.

Frank Lanterman, Dr. Roy's elder son, is already well placed by his artistic ability. Elsa Anderson is well known for her work at the piano. She also possesses a soprano voice of considerable merit and promise.

Max Green's first home, on the state highway, which he sold to Mr. Patch, is again for sale. A change in business, it is said, has caused the Patch family to remove to Los Angeles.

Mrs. Grant Ashworth has had guests from Los Angeles and Long Beach, Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. Foster. They rode all over the Valley, looking around with a view to a possible location.

Were we not humanly limited in sympathy and understanding, we would rejoice that Mrs. Lizzie A. Baker is called home, instead of regretting her absence from our midst. The useful life of the much-loved Mrs. Baker closed on Saturday morning. The illness, of short duration, was very severe and we can not regret that her period of suffering was short. Mrs. Baker was but recently widowed by the death of her husband, Henry C. Baker. An aged mother, a sister and two brothers are left to mourn her loss. No resident of the Valley could be more missed. For many years a prominent member of the Congregational Church, Mrs. Baker served long as clerk of the church and for a long period was president of the Ladies' Aid. She was always active in all community organizations, a very helpful and kind neighbor and friend. She was always among the first to welcome strangers who came among us. The Saviour's "Well done, thou good and faithful servant," was certainly said to her. The burial services were held at Towner and Stevens' rooms on North Raymond street, Pasadena, and the interment at Santa Ana.

Some of our community went to Lincoln Park to hear the stirring addresses made by Leslie M. Henry and Councilman Conwell. There were crowds of people to hear. Solo music was particularly good. Something excellent every Sunday.

Another Sergeant Cooper! Corporal Edwin Cooper has received another step and Sergeant is the prefix his name will bear.

Fitch Jewett is in training at Pelham Bay, N. Y. Just now he is taking practical work on board a ship which goes between New York and Tampico Bay, Fla. In July and August he will be at Pelham Bay for study and theoretical training.

Mrs. M. J. Stickney is our latest bride, who recently married Frank Davis of Los Angeles, at which city she now resides. Our best wishes follow her.

Mrs. Jewett and Mrs. Ashworth are now dignified with the red head-dress which marks the position of work-room instructor.

As previously announced, the Fox film of "Jack and the Beanstalk" will be shown June 1st. The committee desires to make known to the general public that all money in excess of $15.00 taken at this picture will be given to the Red Cross. Therefore, all are urged to attend not only this but all other picture programs. Your admission then serves two purposes, giving you amusement and recreation as well as aiding the greatest cause ever known. The committee also announces that season tickets will be on sale shortly that will enable the holder, if an adult, to attend ten shows for $1.35; children, ten shows for 90 cents. It is hoped that these tickets will be readily taken. It is also intended to hold these programs on Friday evenings instead of Saturday, commencing June 14th. Too much can not be said urging support of these picture programs, as the class of pictures to be shown La Canada audiences is the very best that can be obtained and consequently incur greater expense, but there is not the slightest doubt of the citizens of La Canada doing their share toward making the undertaking a great success. Bulletin boards will be in evidence. Watch them for future announcements.

Owing to an error, the name of the film to be shown at the Improvement meeting was incorrect. It should have read, "The Story of a Cake of Soap," showing a little boy and girl making a trip through a soap factory where toilet soap is made. This will be followed by an animated cartoon entitled "A Christmas Turkey."
